

When I work with oils, I feel free and expressive...I wanted to create tranquillity, to enhance the dream-like feel of the piece. The paint in the background is applied using flowing, gliding strokes, emphasising the calmness of the water and contrasting the masculine figure.

