

The West Coast of Victoria is where I spend most of my free time. It is a place of freedom and peace. Whereas, I feel that the city and constructed environment, brings severity and organisation.

