

The paper crane became an international symbol of peace. In this artwork they represent the peace of the world trapped by war. The paper cranes are representing entrapment. We are all trapped in a world where peace seems to be invisible.

