

During visits with my family, I was inspired to produce this piece of artwork showing different views of Sorrento Beach. I marvelled at the landscape, location, beach and relics on the pier and fell in love with the place instantly.

