Religion Today

DURATION OF SUBJECT

Full year

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Religion Today course at Canowindra enables students to explore values that are important to them at this stage of their personal development. The course looks at how the many values, that people exhibit in life, are based on religious values.

In Semester One, students explore the eight aspects common to all religions and undertake a depth investigation and learning in expert groups, with students developing an understanding of Christianity, Hinduism and Buddhism.

In Semester Two, students examine the concepts of ethics, morality and social justice and how religion creates a framework for how we, on a personal level and as a community, address certain contemporary and historical issues.

ASSESSMENT

Assessment for this program may include group tasks, oral presentations and creative responses.
