
VCE UNITS INFORMATION

VCE English Units 1 and 2

CONTENT

Units 1 and 2

In Units 1 and 2, students read and respond to texts analytically and creatively and compare the presentation of ideas, issues and themes in texts. They analyse arguments and the use of persuasive language in texts and create their own texts intended to position audiences. Students develop their skills in creating written, spoken and multimodal texts. The term ‘set text’ refers to texts chosen by the college for the achievement of set outcomes.

OUTCOMES

Unit 1

- Students should be able to produce both analytical and creative responses to texts
- Students should be able to analyse how argument and persuasive language can be used to position audiences, and create their own texts intended to position audiences

Unit 2

- Students should be able to compare the presentation of ideas, issues and themes in two texts
- Students should be able to identify and analyse how argument and persuasive language are used in text/s that attempt to influence an audience, and create a text which presents a point of view

ASSESSMENT

Demonstration of achievement of outcomes and satisfactory completion of a unit are determined by evidence gained through participation in discussion groups and the assessment of a range of learning activities and tasks in written, oral and multi-modal form.
