

'Choosing to come to Overnewton Anglican Community College means joining a distinctive school. It is a caring and cooperating community comprising students, staff, parents, friends, old Collegians and the Anglican Diocese of Melbourne dedicated to providing affordable educational opportunities to its students.'

Overnewton places special emphasis on the development of a sense of respect and commitment to others, the thirst for knowledge and a love of learning. Membership of the community carries with it expectations of family commitment and parental involvement.'
