

HEAD OF COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Overnewton Anglican Community College

OVERNEWTON
ANGLICAN COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Overnewton Anglican Community College is a contemporary independent co-educational school in Melbourne. The College has an inclusive, welcoming and engaging school community that is respectful, compassionate and proud to achieve.

The role of Head of Community Relations offers an exciting opportunity for an experienced professional to join the College at an exciting time in its development. The recent launch of a new strategic vision incorporating expansion across two sites underlines the College's intent.

The preferred applicant will have:

- Demonstrated experience in the development and successful implementation of considered marketing and community relations strategies, including in the digital space
- Contemporary experience in the use of data to assess the effectiveness of marketing and community relations initiatives
- Exceptional interpersonal skills and experience engaging with key stakeholders to create welcoming and collaborative relationships
- Demonstrated experience leading a high performing and community focussed team
- Knowledge of and/or experience in the oversight of a vibrant and inclusive Alumni

This opportunity will appeal to a marketing and community relations professional with drive and energy who has worked within a high performing school culture.
